

Council will conduct DLIS technical/policy public workshop

The Delta Stewardship Council (Council) will conduct a half-day technical/policy public workshop March 11 in Sacramento on the Delta Levees Investment Strategy \(DLIS\). Public meeting notice is here.

Also, as part of the recruitment for the Council's Lead Scientist position, candidates will make a presentation in a series of lunchtime seminars during March in Sacramento. The seminars will be:

- March 9, Analysis of Water Resiliency in the Context of Hydroclimatic Variability, by Dr. Audrey D. Levine.
- March 11, Managing Environmental Degradation Issues: St. Lucie Estuary Story, by Dr. Jawed Hameedi.
- March 25, Boosting the Use of Science and Data in Support of Management Decisions and Informed Public Policy, by Dr. Steven Daley-Laursen.

More information is here.

Science Program will conduct Delta challenges workshop

The Delta Stewardship Council Delta Science Program will conduct a workshop March 16 in Sacramento to discuss the risks and challenges facing the Bay-Delta system. Also, an independent panel of distinguished science experts (four previous CALFED and Delta Science Program Lead Scientists) will summarize the risks and challenges facing the Bay-Delta system in a concise, readable report for use by policy makers and the public. The seminar is free and open to the public.

DPC Strategic Plan Subcommittee will meet in Stockton

The Delta Protection Commission (DPC) Strategic Plan Subcommittee will meet March 9 in Stockton. Agenda and meeting location are here.

USACE releases levee improvement plan for Stockton area

The U.S. Army Corps of Engineers (USACE) Sacramento District has released its proposed plan to improve approximately 23 miles of levees to help reduce flood risk for north and central Stockton. More information is in this news release.

LAO publishes report on State goals for the Delta

The California Legislative Analyst's Office (LAO) has published a report, titled Achieving State Goals for the Sacramento-San Joaquin Delta.

Subscribe

Unsubscribe

Web site

We welcome your comments and suggestions.

